

How do I ensure my child is using their device responsibly and safely?

1

Monitor your child's screen time. Keep track of what your child is doing online and with whom.

2

Look out for signs such as complaints about being bored, angry or irritable when they are unable to use their device.

3

Set a positive example and model the behaviour you wish to see in your child by balancing the time you spend on your own devices.

